Presentations/Communications:

Supervisor Spears: With our state of emergency, the Town Hall is still closed to the public. Town offices will be closed February 12th and 15th this month for the President's birthdays, and we will also have a new email address ready to use. The website is now www.townofdeerparkny.gov. This is the new secure website we are going to use for all of town hall but mainly for the police and the work that they have to do with the DA's office and the council. You all will have your new email address take over soon.

Public Comments:

Supervisor Spears: Do we have any public comment Glen?

Glen Plotsky: We have one attendee on a Samsung, but I don't know who it is. So, it appears to be that there is no public comment.

Closing:

Closing thoughts:

Supervisor Spears: Shoutout to the Highway Department. They are working hard and doing a good job. Also shoutout to Flo and Danielle for coming in today in spite of the weather conditions.

Councilman Trovei: Prayers and thoughts are with our highway department and fire department volunteers and employees in the current weather conditions.

Councilman Smith: It's going to snow straight through until tomorrow with another 10-12 inches. Stay home if you can, but if you've got to go out, be safe.

Councilman Dean: These are the kind of storms I remember from being a kid, and that was 100 years ago. This is nothing to fool around with and if you don't have to go out, don't. Soon enough it'll melt and we can move forward. We appreciate our highway department during this time.
